Common Gaps and Needs

1. Emergency feeding and hunger relief. This is the number one issue that NC 211 receives calls about.
2. Child Wellbeing
  - a. Feeding
  - b. Education
  - c. Isolation

Add to the list by emailing RFNCInfo@foundationhli.org.

- d. Child abuse
- 3. Emotional and Spiritual Care.
  - a. Burnout for volunteers, first responders, and faith leaders
  - b. For those unable to be present as loved ones die; mortuary services reporting difficult grieving process.
  - c. Churches adapting: drive-in services, call-downs, but some small congregations still meeting.
- 4. Wellness Checks
  - a. Maintaining contact with vulnerable populations (e.g. hurricane survivors, patients with substance use disorders).
  - b. For the elderly, those with limited mobility, or other factors leading to isolation.
  - c. Truly isolated people. How do we find and connect with those who are not part of traditional community infrastructure (churches, senior center, school system)? See www.CoronaCommunity.org.
  - d. Victims of interpersonal violence with stay-at-home orders.
- 5. Economic effects, compounding every day that people are out of work
- 6. Supply chain issues for organizations serving communities
  - a. Food
  - b. PPE
- 7. Volunteers needed
  - a. Food banks, blood donors
- 8. Equity
  - a. Disproportionate outcomes for Black men
  - b. Lack of resources for those experiencing homelessness, currently or formerly involved in justice system, including compassionate release program (#NeedAHome2StayAtHome)
  - c. Latinx community, members of whom may not seek help out of fear for their real or perceived immigration status.
- 9. Community and individual trauma for years to come, similar to hurricanes but with even less certainty.
- 10. Misinformation, public distrust of information, and who is not being reached with critical health and safety information – especially as guidance changes to reflect new understanding of the virus and pandemic.
